

ONE VOICE, ONE VOTE 2022

February 9, 2022

Dear Friends,

This is our time. Our community has one voice, and one vote this election. Together we are strong. Our values - not a political party - are the most important. As leaders in the community, we ask you to join us in electing wholesome and principal community leaders. Important: Take this notice folded in your pocket with you to the polls. Not all the candidates will be on your ballot. Take your time to review the ballot.

Early voting begins: February 14 through February 25.

Texas primary election: March 1, 2022.

Among the multitudes of candidates who are running for public office, a few names stand out with great distinction based on their service to our community:

- LAIQUE REHMAN is a Republican running for U.S. Congress. Many of you know Laique. Laique is a successful, self-made oil and gas veteran. Laique has been a leader in American trade and commerce for decades. Creating jobs for our community, Texans and our nation. Laique has been an active, caring civic leader. He stood with us. Now let's stand with him.
- MIKE KHAN is also a Republican candidate running for Texas House District 76. He provides a voice for our community and beyond in the Greater Houston area. Mike will be an important leader for us in Austin. Recent polling shows he's in the lead, but he's in a tight battle. Let's push him over the top. Vote for Mike to make your voice heard.
- ZEE ADAM GIRE - His friends call him "Zee" and he's running for Justice of the Peace in the Republican primary. Many of you know Zee, his kind heart and faithful values. He's fair-minded and principled, with a sense of humor. Zee is a leader of faith and has led multiple disaster relief and recovery projects. Zee helped many families survive catastrophic weather, the pandemic, and other difficulties. We are honored to endorse him. He'll be a fair judge but he needs your vote.

The above candidates represent our values of hard work and dedication balanced with compassion for anyone struggling to achieve the American dream.

Laique, Mike and Zee will advocate for fiscal responsibility and endeavor to protect our future generations. By way of their diverse backgrounds, each of these candidates empower our community, forging the way forward. They are paving the way in the political world for our daughters and sons as well.

We are extremely excited in our personal capacity to fully endorse Laique Rahman, Mike Khan and Zee Adam Gire. We encourage you to vote Republican in the primary election so these candidates may move forward to the general elections on November 1, 2022.

I'm asking you to stand with us. We have a chance to make history. You and I have an obligation to help one another.

We the undersigned want to thank you in advance for your help and consideration.
